INTRODUCTION

All Australian University Sport (AUS) events at both a national and regional level, must ensure an appropriate committee structure is in place to deal with any matters considered disputes, incidents and/or breaches of the AUS code of behavior that occur during an event.

The committees will enable any complaint or incident to be dealt with swiftly and fairly in accordance with the AUS constitution and by laws. AUS committees include:

Sports dispute committee
The sports disputes committee (SDC) deals with any on field incidents and all matters relating to the conduct of sports competitions during Australian University Sport events.

Sports dispute appeals committee
The AUS sports disputes appeals committee (SDAC) can deal with appeals from the sport disputes committee only. An appeal of the decision of the SDC is allowed to the AUS sport disputes appeals committee (SDAC) only if it meets the procedural irregularity or new evidence criteria.
