Academic Senate rules
1. (1) These rules may be cited as the ‘Academic Senate Rules’.
(2) The Academic Senate is the principal academic body in the University and, subject to the By-laws and to any resolution of the Council, will have such powers and duties as may be delegated to it by the Council.
(3) The Academic Senate may establish committees to assist it in connection with the exercise of any of its functions. It does not matter that any or all of the members of the committees are not members of the Academic Senate.

2. (1) The Academic Senate consists of:
(i) the Vice-Chancellor,
(ii) the Deputy Vice-Chancellors and the Pro-Vice Chancellors,
(iii) the Executive Deans of Faculties,
(iv) the Dean of Students,
(v) the Dean of Higher Degree Research,
(vi) the Director of Learning and Teaching Centre,
(vii) the Head of Department of Indigenous Studies,
(viii) the University Librarian,
(ix) four members from each Faculty elected by and from the academic staff of the Faculty in accordance with Schedule 1 of the By-law provided that:
(a) only members of the academic staff who are full-time or part-time continuing, or fixed term for 3 or more years and with fractional appointment of 50% and above are eligible to participate in the election and to be elected;
(b) the four members elected from each Faculty must be from different Departments;
(c) of the four members from each Faculty at least one must be a Head of Department or a Professor;
(x) student members elected annually in accordance with Schedule 1 of the By-law under the following categories:
(a) one student member from each Faculty enrolled in an undergraduate program,
(b) one student member enrolled in a postgraduate coursework program, and
(c) one student member enrolled in a postgraduate higher degree research program.
(xi) up to four additional members appointed by resolution of Academic Senate.

(2) A member who is an Executive Dean of Faculty is ineligible for election under Rule 2(1)(ix) and if a member elected under that rule becomes Executive Dean of Faculty, the place occupied by that member will thereupon become vacant.
(3) The elections provided for in Rule 2(1)(ix) will be held biennially, and the term of office of a member elected at any such election will commence on the first day of January next following the member’s election and expire two years thereafter.
(4) A person cannot be elected under Rule 2(1)(ix) if that person served on Academic Senate in the previous two consecutive terms.

3. (1) Where a casual vacancy occurs in the office of a member of the Academic Senate being a member of the continuing academic staff holding office under Rule 2(1)(ix) or a student holding office under Rule 2(1)(x) the remaining members of the Academic Senate must proceed to fill the vacancy by co-opting to membership a member of the continuing academic staff, or a student member, as the case may be.

(2) (i) A member of the Academic Senate will be deemed to have vacated office if that member:

(a) dies;
(b) resigns that office by notice in writing addressed to the Chair or the Registrar;
(c) resigns from the University;
(d) proceeds on leave of absence for a period exceeding nine months;
(e) is absent without leave of the Academic Senate from three consecutive meetings of the Academic Senate; or
(f) in the case of a student member elected pursuant to Rule 2(1)(x), ceases to be a student.

(ii) Where a member of the Academic Senate being a member holding office under Rule 2(1)(ix) or Rule 2(1)(x) proceeds on leave of absence from the University for a period exceeding three months but less than nine months, the Academic Senate will co-opt a member of the continuing academic staff or a student of the University, as the case may be, to fill the vacancy for the period of absence but not beyond the expiry of the term of office on Senate of the member proceeding on leave; and the member on leave, at the conclusion of that period of leave, will resume membership of Academic Senate for the balance of the term of office.

(iii) Where a person other than a member of the Academic Senate is appointed Acting Executive Dean of a Faculty, that person must for the purposes of these rules become a member of the Academic Senate during the period of such appointment.

(ii) Where a member of the Academic Senate being a member of the continuing academic staff of a Faculty is appointed Acting Executive Dean of a Faculty the members of the Academic Senate may co-opt a member of the continuing academic staff from the same Faculty as the member so appointed to hold office during the period of appointment of such Acting Executive Dean of the Faculty.

4. The Registrar of the University or nominee is Secretary to the Academic Senate.

5. (1) The members of the Academic Senate will elect:
(i) any full-time academic staff of the University at level D and E to be Chair of the Academic Senate; and
(ii) one of the members of the Academic Senate elected pursuant to Rule 2(1)(ix) to be Deputy Chair of the Academic Senate;

5. (2) If a member of the Academic Senate elected pursuant to Rule 2(1)(ix) is elected as the Chair, a casual vacancy occurs in the office of that member of the Academic Senate and it must be filled in accordance with Rule 3(1).

6. All questions, which come before the Academic Senate must be decided by the majority of the members present and voting at the meeting and the member presiding at the meeting will have a deliberative vote and, in the case of an equality of votes, a casting vote.

7. The number of members who constitute quorum must be half the membership plus one.

8. Nothing in these rules must apply to or in respect of the Academic Senate in office prior to the date on which these rules came into operation.

Affiliation of residential colleges rules

Establishment of colleges

1. The Council may permit a residential college to be established in association with the University.

Affiliation of colleges

2. Subject to the provisions of these rules and upon such conditions as it may determine the Council may grant affiliation with the University to a residential college whether upon land vested in or acquired by the University or upon other land if the college is established and maintained in accordance with these rules.

Resident members

3. (1) Except in special cases determined by the Council, a college shall not during University terms permit a person (other than a member of the staff of the college) to reside at the college unless he or she is a resident member of the college.

(a) is enrolled for a course of study leading to a degree or diploma of the University;
(b) is engaged in research at the University; or
(c) is a member of the research, teaching, library or administrative staff of a recognised university.

(2) A college shall not admit a person to a resident membership unless he or she:

3. (3) In admitting persons to resident membership, a college shall give preference to applicants of the categories described in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph (2) of this rule over applicants of the category described in sub-paragraph (c) thereof.
(4) The number of residents of a college (other than members of its domestic staff) at any time who upon their admission to the college had not reached an educational standard comparable, in the opinion of the Council, with the educational standard of students entering the University for degree courses, shall not exceed ten percent of the total number of residents of the college at that time.

Non-resident members
4. A college may admit to non-resident membership of the college:
   (a) any person who is not disqualified for admission to residential membership under the last preceding paragraph; and
   (b) members of Convocation.

No religious test
5. A college shall not impose any religious test as a condition of membership of the college and shall not require of any member that he or she participate in any religious observance.

Constitution of college
6. (1) The constitution of an affiliated college shall be approved by the Council and without limiting the generality of the foregoing provision shall provide:
   (a) for one member of the governing body of the college to be appointed by the Council from time to time and for such period as the Council determines;
   (b) for the appointment, conjointly by the governing body of the college and the Council, of a Visitor to the college to discharge such powers and functions as the Council may from time to time determine.

6. (2) The constitution of an affiliated college shall not be altered or amended except with the prior approval of the Council.

Withdrawal of affiliation
7. At any time, after giving two months’ notice in writing to the governing body of a college that in the opinion of the Council it has failed to comply with these rules or with the conditions upon which affiliation has been granted, the Council may by resolution withdraw the affiliation of a college with the University
Before forming such opinion the Council shall:
   (a) give notice in writing to the governing body of the college, specifying the matters in respect of which it is alleged that the college has failed to comply with these rules or with the conditions upon which affiliation has been granted and stating that such failure may result in the withdrawal of such affiliation, and
   (b) give the governing body an opportunity to show cause why the affiliation should not be withdrawn.

Council rules
1. An ordinary meeting of the Council shall be held at least once every two months.
2. The Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor shall have power to call a special meeting for the consideration of business which either may wish to submit to the Council.
3. A special meeting of the Council shall be convened by either the Chancellor or the Vice-Chancellor or, in their absence, by the Registrar, upon the written request of six members setting forth the objects for which the meeting is required to be convened and the meeting shall be held within fourteen days after the receipt of such request.
4. (1) The Registrar shall transmit by post or deliver to each member of the Council a written or printed notice of the date, time and place of, and agenda for, the next ensuing meeting of the Council, whether such meeting is an ordinary or a special meeting.
   (2) Such notice shall, except in any case of emergency, be so transmitted or delivered at least seven days before the day of the meeting.
5. The Council may adjourn any meeting to a later date.
6. No member shall make any motion initiating a subject for discussion at any meeting of the Council except in pursuance of notice given to the Registrar at least ten days previously, except that at any meeting the Chancellor, or the Council, may permit the introduction of any subject for discussion.
7. If a quorum of the Council is not present within half an hour after the appointed time for a meeting whether special or ordinary all business which should have been transacted at such meeting shall unless a special meeting is summoned in the meantime for the transaction of that business stand over for the next ordinary meeting and take precedence thereat.
8. There shall be committees of the Council as the Council may determine and each such committee shall consist of such persons being members of Council, officers of the University, students (within the meaning of section 9(1)(f) of the Act) or other persons and shall be authorised to exercise such powers and functions as the Council may from time to time determine.
9. Subject to the provisions of the Act the Council may make rules for the procedure at and in respect of Council meetings, for the convening and holding of meetings of any committee of the Council and for the conduct of the proceedings of any such committee.
10. (1) The Chancellor and Deputy Chancellor may call for such documents and expend money to obtain such legal advice as may be required for University purposes, subject to subsequent report to the Council.

(2) Requests for documents should be made to the Vice-Chancellor or to the Council Secretary who will obtain the required materials and forward them forthwith to the Chancellor or Deputy Chancellor as the case may be.

(3) Notification of the expenditure of money by the Chancellor or Deputy Chancellor to obtain legal advice should be provided to the Vice-Chancellor or to the Council Secretary who will authorise payment of associated accounts.

(4) The Council Secretary will arrange for Council to be advised of any documents sought by the Chancellor or Deputy Chancellor or of any expenditure by the Chancellor or the Deputy Chancellor to obtain legal advice.

Courses and degrees rules

Faculty rules

1. (1) These rules may be cited as the ‘Faculty Rules’.

(2) These rules shall apply to the following Faculties and organisational units:

- Faculty of Business and Economics
Faculty of Arts
Faculty of Human Sciences
Faculty of Science
Graduate School of Management
Australian School of Advanced Medicine

and to such other Faculties, Departments and other academic organisational units within the University as the Council may from time to time determine.

2. (Repealed)

Executive Deans of faculties

3. The Executive Deans of Faculties shall be appointed by such procedures and for such terms of office as the Council may determine.

4. The Executive Dean of Faculty shall take the Chair at meetings of the Faculty subject to clause 16(1) of these Rules, and shall be executive head of the Faculty and, subject to the By-laws, shall supervise and be responsible for exercising and discharging such academic and administrative powers, authorities, duties and functions as may be assigned to the Executive Dean of Faculty from time to time by the Council of the University.

Heads of departments

5. The Heads of Departments shall be appointed by such procedures and for such terms of office as the Vice-Chancellor may determine.

6. The Head of Department shall take the Chair at meetings of the Department and shall be responsible for exercising and discharging such academic and administrative powers, authorities, duties and functions as may be delegated to the Head of the Department.

7. Should the Head of a Department be absent from the University or temporarily unable to act, the Dean may appoint an Acting Head of the Department for a period not exceeding six months.

8. If the office of the Head of a Department becomes vacant by death, resignation or otherwise a successor shall be appointed in accordance with Rule 5 of these rules as soon as conveniently may be. Pending such appointment, the Executive Dean of Faculty may appoint an Acting Head of that Department.

9. (Repealed)

10. (Repealed)

11. (Repealed)

12. (Repealed)

The faculties

13. Each Faculty shall consist of:

(a) the Executive Dean of the Faculty, who shall take the Chair at meetings of the Faculty;

(b) the continuing academic staff of that Faculty;

(c) students elected annually for a term of one year, according to the procedure set out in the Schedule to these Rules, provided that such students shall be three in number or one-tenth of the aggregate (rounded to the next higher whole number) of the members referred to in clauses (a) and (b) of this Rule, whichever is the greater;

(d) such persons who may be co-opted by members of the Faculty for a term of not more than one year from among the continuing non-academic staff of the Faculty;

(e) such persons who may be co-opted by members of the Faculty for a term of not more than one year from among the academic staff of the University;

(f) such persons who have attained distinction in the practice of a discipline offered by the Faculty and who are not at the time of co-option members of the staff of the University or students of the University, who may be co-opted for a term of not more than one year, by not less than two-thirds of the members of the Faculty present and voting at a meeting of the Faculty convened in accordance with these rules.

(g) The total number of persons who may be co-opted under sub-paragraphs (d) to (f) of paragraph 1 of this rule shall not exceed one-fifth of the number of members referred to in sub-paragraph (a) and (b) of paragraph (1) of this rule.

14. Each Faculty shall meet not less than four times each year:

(a) to consider general academic matters pertaining to the Faculty and in particular to consider and formulate recommendations to the Academic Senate with respect to:

(i) the academic advising of students;

(ii) the schedule of units of study to be offered by the Faculty;

(iii) the results of students in units or programs of study offered by the Faculty in accordance with the Degree Rules;

(iv) any other academic matter referred to it by the Academic Senate or the Vice-Chancellor or the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Provost).

Provided that at meetings of the Faculty held to consider matters referred to it in paragraph (iii) attendance shall be confined to persons who are members of the staff of the University;

(b) to discuss and to express views about other matters which the Faculty considers relevant to its academic mission;
23. (1) No act, proceeding or decision made by a Faculty or the Executive Dean of Faculty or any act, proceeding or decision of any committee or body within the University which includes amongst its members a representative of a Faculty, whether taken or occurring before or after the commencement date of this Rule, shall be invalidated solely by reason of:

(a) any vacancies in the membership of the Faculty;
(b) any defects in the appointment of the Executive Dean of Faculty;
(c) any disqualifications of any members of the Faculty;
(d) any irregularities in the manner in which any meetings of the Faculty have been convened or conducted; or
(e) the presence or participation, at any meetings of the Faculty, of any persons not entitled to be present or to participate at those meetings.

(2) Nothing in this Rule shall be taken or construed to limit or otherwise affect the power of the Council to set aside an act, proceeding or decision on the basis of any of the matters set forth in paragraph (1)(a)–(e).

The departments

24. Each Department shall consist of:

(a) the Head of the Department who shall take the Chair at meetings of the Department;
(b) the continuing academic staff of that Department;
(c) such persons who may be co-opted by the Department for a term of not more than one year from among the continuing non-academic staff of the Department and from among the academic staff of the University;
(d) the total number of persons who may be co-opted under sub-paragraph (c) of this Rule shall not exceed one fifth of the number of members referred to in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Rule.

25. Each Department will meet as required including to consider matters referred to it by the Faculty or the Executive Dean of the Faculty.

26. A quorum at meetings of the Department shall be one third of the full number (or where one third of the full number is not a whole number then the whole number next higher than one third of the full number) of members of the Department other than those absent on approved leave.

Schedule

1. In each Faculty, the Executive Dean of Faculty or the Executive Dean's nominee (hereinafter called the Returning Officer) shall conduct the election of the students elected as members of the Faculty shall include at least one student who is a candidate for the degree or honours degree of Bachelor or a graduate diploma and at least one student who is a candidate for a postgraduate degree or diploma.

3. The student members of a Faculty shall be elected by and from those students who are registered at the time of the election in a program located in the Faculty but, subject to clause 2 of this Schedule, the Executive Deans of Faculties may determine that such student members shall be elected in a way that is representative of programs that are taught by the departments of the Faculty.

4. In each Faculty, the elections of students by students referred to in Rule 13(c) of the Faculty Rules shall be conducted by the Returning Officer, according to procedures determined by the Returning Officer, provided that:

(a) as far as is practicable, every student registered in the programs located in the Faculty shall be notified of the elections by some or all of the following means, where appropriate:
   (i) by announcements in classes;
   (ii) by notification in course material issued to students;
   (iii) by notification in despatches to external students;
   (iv) by notices displayed prominently in the Faculty and in other appropriate locations;

(b) each nomination of a candidate for election must be seconded by a student eligible to vote in the same Faculty election and must be accompanied by the consent of the candidate;

(c) in each Faculty, the election shall be conducted over a period of five consecutive weeks of teaching, provided that nominations shall be accepted during the first two weeks; voting by secret ballot shall take place in the third and fourth weeks, and the fifth week shall be available for the resolution of any polling disputes, for public declaration of the poll and for notification of the results of the poll to the Registrar.

5. In each Faculty the Returning Officer shall inform the Registrar in writing by not later than the end of the eighth week of teaching in the first half of each year of the names of the students who have been elected to membership of the Faculty under the provisions of Rule 13(c) of the Faculty Rules, and the students so elected as members of the Faculty shall take office at the beginning of the ninth week of teaching. At the same time, each Returning Officer shall publish the names and means of contact of the students elected as members of the Faculty.

6. In the event of the number of nominations received for election being equal to or fewer than the number of places available in any Faculty, the persons nominated shall be declared elected and the other positions (if any) will remain vacant.

7. A Faculty may co-opt a student to fill a casual vacancy in a position of an elected student member of the Faculty. A student member of the Faculty shall be deemed to have vacated office if that student:

(a) resigns;
(b) dies;
(c) is absent without leave of the Faculty from three consecutive meetings of the Faculty which the student is eligible to attend.
(d) ceases to be eligible as a candidate for election to that Faculty.

Fees rules

Preliminary

1. The Council may impose and determine from time to time by rule the fees and charges to be paid for examinations, for the granting of degrees, diplomas and certificates, for attendance at the lectures and classes of the University, including facilities associated with student residences, playing fields and with all other activities of the University.

2. Where the Council has resolved that a fee or charge should be imposed in relation to any matter but has not determined the amount of such fee or charge, the Vice-Chancellor may from time to time determine the fee or charge payable in relation to that matter and that the fee or charge shall be the amount payable until such time as the Council otherwise determines.

3. Any student who fails to complete the payment of fees by the time determined by the Council shall be liable to pay such late fees as the Council may from time to time determine.

4. The Registrar may exclude from an examination and from the use of any facilities of the University any student who has not paid the fees due and who has not discharged any indebtedness to the University.

5. The Council may make provision for waiving fees and late fees in full or in part.

Fees publicised on Macquarie University's website are current at the time of publication but may be amended by the University Council or Vice-Chancellor without notice.

Fees

1. (1) The fees to be paid to the University by students shall be as prescribed by these rules.

   (2) For the purpose of these rules:

   (i) a student, who is a candidate for a degree or diploma, shall be regarded as full-time, part-time, or external as designated by the rules pursuant to which the course or program of study in which the student is enrolled is offered;
(ii) the dates of the first half-year and second half-year shall be as determined from time to time and shown in the University Calendar;

(iii) a non-award student is a student who is enrolled in one or more units from the University’s award program but who is not enrolled for an award;

(iv) a Continuing Education student is a student who is enrolled in one or more units conducted by the University, but who is not enrolled as an award, non-award, enabling or cross-institutional student;

(v) an international student is a student who is not an Australian or New Zealand citizen nor the holder of permanent residence status in Australia and who is enrolled in a program of study on a fee-paying basis.

2. (Repealed)

Continuing education and non-award

3. The fees to be paid by students enrolled in units conducted by the University under its Continuing Education Program, or by students enrolled as a non-award student, shall be as determined from time to time by the Vice-Chancellor, pursuant to By-law 35(2), who shall also determine the conditions under which refunds of such fees may be made.

Tuition fees for domestic students

4. (1) Students who are enrolled in fee paying programs shall be liable to pay tuition fees as approved by the Vice-Chancellor. These rates can be found on Macquarie University’s website: www.mq.edu.au/unifees.

(2) Tuition fees shall be payable each study period by a date specified by the Chief Financial Officer.

(3) Tuition Fees shall be payable for the total Equivalent Full-Time Student Load (EFTSL) value for which a student is enrolled in each study period.

(4) Save as provided in Rule 4(5), a student who discontinues, by the relevant study period census date, a unit for a program for which tuition fees are payable, shall be granted a refund of fees paid in respect of that unit.

(5) The Vice-Chancellor may determine special conditions under which refunds of tuition fees may be made in respect of a particular program where the Vice-Chancellor considers that the provisions of sub-rule (4) are inappropriate for that program.

(6) The Higher Education Loan Programme (HELP), via FEE-HELP, allows eligible students to defer their tuition fee which is administered by the Australian Taxation Office.

Commonwealth supported places

5. (1) In accordance with the Higher Education Support Act 2003 (as amended), students who receive a Commonwealth supported place will be liable to pay a contribution based on the indexed rates provided by the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations (DEEWR) and approved by the Vice-Chancellor.

(2) The Higher Education Loan Programme (HELP), via HECS-HELP, allows eligible students to defer their student contribution which is administered by the Australian Taxation Office.

(3) The student contribution shall be payable for the total EFTSL for which a student is enrolled in each study period.

(4) Where the student discontinues on or before the relevant study period census date, a unit or other component of a program taken, no student contribution shall apply in respect of that unit or component.

International students

6. The fees to be paid by international students shall be determined, pursuant to By-law 35(2), by the Vice-Chancellor who shall also determine the conditions under which refunds of such fees shall be made.

Late fees

7. (1) Late fee payable if application for admission is lodged after the day specified by the Registrar—late fees similar to the UAC late fees for the relevant admission period.

The late application fee will not be refunded under any circumstances.

(2) Late fee payable if enrolment is completed after the day specified by the Registrar or if fees are outstanding by the due date specified by the Chief Financial Officer—$200 provided that in no case will enrolment be accepted more than one month after the day specified for the completion of enrolment except with the approval of the Registrar. In exceptional circumstances the Vice-Chancellor may waive the payment of the late enrolment fee.

8. (Repealed)

Charges

9. Charges to be made for use of facilities or services provided by the University shall be as specified on the University’s website: www.ofs.mq.edu.au/student_finances/index.htm

Assisted students

10. Holders of scholarships or other forms of financial assistance who have not received an enrolment voucher or appropriate letter of authority from their sponsor by the due date to pay fees are required to pay their own fees. A refund will be made after the enrolment voucher or letter of authority has been lodged.

Extension of time for payment

11. Any student who owing to exceptional circumstances is unable to pay fees by the due date may apply in writing to the Chief Financial
Failure to meet liabilities

12. (1) Students who are indebted to the University for less than $200 will be denied access to examination results and permission to re-enrol.

(2) Students who are indebted to the University for amounts totalling $200 or more will be warned that their enrolment will be cancelled, and if they remain indebted beyond a date determined by the Chief Financial Officer that their enrolment will be cancelled and that they will be denied permission to re-enrol and denied access to examination results.

(3) Students who are indebted to the University shall not be permitted to graduate until such debt is cleared.

Schedules 1–4

(Repealed)

Macquarie University Foundation program rules

1. There shall be a Macquarie University Foundation Program.

2. The Academic Senate may provide a statement of attainment to a candidate who has met the requirements of these Rules.

3. A candidate for the Macquarie University Foundation Program shall be admitted to a program of units approved by the Academic Senate.

4. The determination of whether a candidate has completed satisfactorily a unit forming part of the program of units in Rule 3 shall be made in accordance with bachelor degree rules 9, 10, 11, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17, 19, 20, 21 and 22.

5. A relevant committee of Academic Senate may declare that a candidate has completed any specified prescribed unit where other work completed by the candidate is deemed to be equivalent to the prescribed unit.

6. A candidate who completes a program of units in Rule 3 to a standard prescribed by the Academic Senate may be considered as having qualified for admission to a program of study for an award under the bachelor degree rules.

7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, the Academic Senate may, in any case in which it may deem it appropriate to do so, dispense with or suspend any requirements of or prescription by these rules. Any such action by the Academic Senate shall in every instance be reported forthwith to the Council.

Nominations committee rules

1. Council shall establish a Nominations Committee pursuant and subject to By-law 14.

2. For the purposes of By-law 15 the Registrar (or nominee) will convene the Committee.

3. The Registrar (or nominee) will seek expressions of interest from suitable persons who would be qualified to hold office under the specified category. Expressions of interest may be sought in any manner determined by the Committee except that, when expressions of interest are sought for appointment as graduate members, an advertisement must be placed once in a national newspaper and once in a newspaper circulating in NSW.

4. An expression of interest may be in any form but it must include a statement addressing the nominee’s suitability for appointment in terms of the qualifications/skills/knowledge sought, together with information and qualifications and experience and full contact details. It must be received by the Registrar by the due date for the particular round of considerations.

5. A person may be nominated by a member of the University or a person may self-nominate.

6. Contact with nominees will be through the Registrar (or nominee) unless otherwise authorised by the Chancellor. The Committee will at all times respect the right of any nominee to have their nomination treated in confidence.

Subject to By-law 15 considering nominations, the Committee will consider whether those nominated:

• have an appreciation of the values of Macquarie University and its core activities of teaching, research and community outreach, its independence and academic freedom;

• can contribute to Council by having (or having the capacity to develop) a good understanding of what the external community needs from the University and strong external networks of benefit to the University;

• will contribute to the effective working of the Council, and ensure that they have complementary skills to those already serving on Council.

7. In making its recommendations to Council, the Committee will include in its report its assessment of the nominees against the factors listed above as well as any other relevant factors it has taken into consideration in coming to its decision. It may refer to the qualities of those not recommended but it will not identify them.
Rule for the election of Chancellor

1. In the case where either the incumbent Chancellor’s term is due to expire and he or she has indicated a wish to stand down from office, or where the office becomes vacant, the Council will appoint a Search Committee.

2. A Search Committee for Chancellor will comprise:
   - the Deputy Chancellor (Chair).
   - the Vice-Chancellor;
   - the Vice-President of Academic Senate;
   - one graduate member of Council;
   - one external member of Council.

The Council Secretary (or delegate) will be the Secretary to the Search Committee.

3. The outgoing Chancellor will not be a member of the Search Committee but may be consulted on nominations.

4. Members of Council, including members of the Search Committee, and members of the University’s senior management team will be invited to put forward nominations.

5. The Search Committee will receive and consider all nominations and may make such enquiries as it deems fit in respect of any potential candidate.

6. The role of the Chancellor includes:
   - governance;
   - non-executive leadership;
   - team building;
   - advocacy and lobbying;
   - ceremonial duties;
   - facilitation;
   - mentoring;
   - reviewing the Vice-Chancellor’s performance

In considering the suitability of potential candidates, the Search Committee will have regard to the attributes that a Chancellor should be expected to bring to the role.

7. An unofficial approach will be made to the person identified by the Search Committee as the favoured candidate. This approach would normally be made by the Chair of the Search Committee.

8. At the conclusion of its enquiries, the Search Committee shall provide the Returning Officer with one nomination for election or not as Chancellor by the Council, together with any information about that person which it considers relevant.

9. If a person is elected as Chancellor prior to the office becoming vacant, that person shall take office from the date of the election.

10. In the case where the incumbent Chancellor has indicated that he or she wishes to continue in office at the completion of the current term, the Council Secretary will formally call for nominations for election or not as Chancellor by the Council. Such election would take place at a Council meeting prior to the completion of the Chancellor’s term.

11. The Council Secretary (or delegate) shall be the Returning Officer for elections of Chancellor.

Rules governing the enrolment of students

1. The Council may, after considering a recommendation by the Academic Senate, determine the maximum number of students who may be permitted to enrol in any given year for any course or any group of courses.

2. The Council may, after considering a recommendation by the Academic Senate, determine the maximum number of students who may be permitted to enrol in any year for any offering of a unit, for any unit or for any group of units.

3. (1) Candidates for any of the awards under the Bachelor Degree Rules or the Graduate Diploma Rules or for any of the undergraduate diplomas awarded by the University shall satisfy such requirements for admission to candidature as may be prescribed from time to time by the Academic Senate after considering a recommendation by a relevant committee appointed by Academic Senate.

   (2) Where the number of applicants who have satisfied the requirements determined under paragraph (1) of this rule exceeds the number of students who may be admitted to candidature for a course as determined by the Council pursuant to Rule 1, the Academic Senate, after considering a recommendation a relevant committee appointed by Academic Senate, shall determine the basis on which the applicants are to be selected.

4. (1) Candidates for any of the awards under the Doctoral Rules, Master Degree by Research Rules, Master Degree by Coursework Rules, Postgraduate Diploma Rules, or the Postgraduate Certificate Rules shall satisfy such requirements for admission to candidature as may be prescribed pursuant to those rules.

   (2) Where the number of applicants who have satisfied the requirements determined under paragraph (1) of this Rule exceeds the number of students who may be admitted to candidature for a course as determined by the Council pursuant to rule 1, a relevant committee appointed by Academic Senate, after considering a recommendation by the Executive Dean of the Faculty in which the course is offered, shall determine the basis on which such applicants are to be selected.
Student misconduct and discipline rules

1. For breach of discipline or misconduct any member of the teaching staff may suspend any student from attendance at classes for a period not exceeding four weeks and from examination, or may impose a fine not exceeding ten dollars on the student, or may both so suspend and fine the student:
   - provided that the circumstances relating to the suspension or fine shall be reported in writing by the member to the Vice-Chancellor forthwith;
   - provided further that the authority hereby conferred shall extend only to any breach of discipline or misconduct committed in or with respect to the classes of such member, or committed in the member’s presence.

2. For breach of discipline (including non-compliance with the rules for the use of the library as determined by the Vice-Chancellor from time to time) or misconduct the University Librarian may suspend any student from attendance at the library for a period not exceeding four weeks and from use of the facilities of the library, or may impose a fine on the student not exceeding an amount determined by Council from time to time, or may both so suspend and fine the student:
   - Provided that the circumstances relating to the suspension or fine (other than a fine imposed for the late return of library materials) shall be reported in writing by the University Librarian to the Vice-Chancellor forthwith;
   - Provided further that the authority hereby conferred shall extend only to any breach of discipline or misconduct committed in or with respect to the library or its precincts.

3. (1) Any student in respect of whom a decision of a member of the teaching staff or of the University Librarian has been made whereby such student has been suspended or fined or suspended and fined under Clause 1 or 2 may appeal to the Vice-Chancellor.

   (2) The Vice-Chancellor, on appeal so made to him or her, may confirm, quash or vary any such decision or may refer the appeal to the Discipline Committee under Clause 6 for determination by it.

4. (1) The Registrar, or any person authorised by the Registrar in that behalf, may, for breach of discipline or misconduct at a University examination, exclude a student or candidate from attendance or further attendance at that examination.

   (2) The person supervising the conduct of a University examination shall forthwith report to the Registrar any instance coming to his or her notice of breach or suspected breach of discipline or misconduct or suspected misconduct at that examination.

   (3) The Registrar shall forthwith report to the Vice-Chancellor in writing any instance coming to the Registrar’s notice of breach or suspected breach of discipline or misconduct or suspected misconduct at a University examination.

   (4) The Director, Office of Facilities Management, or any person authorised by him or her in writing in that behalf, may, for breach of discipline in relation to the bringing of any vehicle or thing on to or the management of any vehicle or thing upon the University site or premises or in relation to the use made of the University site or premises, impose on any student a fine not exceeding ten dollars.

5. (1) Any student in respect of whom a decision to impose a fine has been made under Clause 4(4) may appeal to the Vice-Chancellor within seven days of being served by post at the student’s address last known to the Registrar with notice of the imposition of the fine and on appeal being so made to him or her, the Vice-Chancellor may confirm, quash or vary the decision appealed from or may refer the appeal to the Discipline Committee under Clause 6 for determination by it.

   For breach of discipline or misconduct whether or not already dealt with under any of the foregoing provisions of this rule, the Vice-Chancellor may impose a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars on a student, or candidate at any University examination, or may exclude the student or candidate from the University or from any part thereof for a period not exceeding four weeks, or may both so fine and exclude the student or candidate.

5A. A student indebted to the University by reason of the non-payment of any fine or fines aggregating fifty dollars or more imposed pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this rule and who has failed to discharge the student’s indebtedness after notice from the Chief Financial Officer requiring payment by a date specified in the notice shall be excluded from the University forthwith after that date until that indebtedness is discharged in full.

   Provided that in any case where it is made to appear to the Vice-Chancellor that the full application to a student of such exclusion would be inappropriate having regard to the circumstances, the Vice-Chancellor may direct that that exclusion or any specified incidence thereof shall not attach to the student concerned for such time as the Vice-Chancellor shall fix.

6. (1) There shall be a Discipline Committee which shall consist of the Chancellor or Deputy Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, the Vice-President of the Academic Senate, a member of Council selected by the Council, four Executive Deans of Faculties selected biennially by the Academic Senate (or their delegates), a student member of the Academic Senate selected by the Academic Senate and any other persons appointed from time to time by the Vice-Chancellor.

   (2) Four members shall form the quorum of a Discipline Committee.

The University regularly reviews and amends the content and form of the Calendar of Governance, Legislation and Rules and the Handbook of Undergraduate Studies with the latest versions of these published on the University websites www.handbook.mq.edu.au and http://universitycouncil.mq.edu.au. The Handbook of Postgraduate Coursework Studies is available online www.handbook.mq.edu.au.
(3) The Vice-Chancellor may refer to the Discipline Committee any matter involving any question as to breach of discipline or misconduct of any kind by any student, or by a candidate at any University examination. The Vice-Chancellor, upon or after making such reference, may suspend the student from the use of all or any of the facilities of the University and from attendance within the University premises and grounds pending investigation of and decision on the matter by the Discipline Committee and pending any appeal to the Council by the student from that decision. Any such suspension may be varied during its currency by the Vice-Chancellor or may be lifted by him or her.

(4) On such reference the Discipline Committee shall investigate matters which involve any question as to breach of discipline or misconduct of any kind by any student, or by a candidate at any University examination, and may impose penalties in accordance with academic usage.

(5) A report of the decision of the Discipline Committee in any matter shall be laid upon the tables of the Council and the Academic Senate as soon as possible after the meeting of the Discipline Committee at which the decision was given.

6A. (1) Where a decision under Clause 3, 4(5), 5 or 6(4), or a determination under Clause 8(1) has been made the Registrar shall send to the person in respect of whom the decision or determination is made a notice setting forth details of the decision or determination.

(2) The notice referred to in Clause 6A(1) shall be sent by post to the person in respect of whom the decision or determination is made at that person's address last known to the Registrar and shall be deemed to be served on the day on which it would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

7. (1) Any person in respect of whom a decision of the Vice-Chancellor or the Discipline Committee has been made under Clause 3, 4(5), 5 or 6(4) and who is aggrieved by the decision may, subject to Clause 9, appeal to the Council.

(2) The Council, on appeal made to it, may confirm, quash or vary any such decision.

8. (1) Where:

(a) a student has failed to supply information called for on an application for enrolment in the University or has furnished false or misleading information on such an application;

(b) any authority in the University has made a decision with reference to a student’s admission, academic standing, or courses of study or otherwise concerning his or her academic program or academic progress within the University; and

(c) the authority is satisfied that the failure or the furnishing of such information resulted in the making of the decision, the authority may reverse, vacate, annul or vary the decision.

(2) A student in respect of whom a determination by any authority has, pursuant to Clause 8(1), been made reversing, vacating, annulling or varying such a decision may, subject to Clause 9, appeal to the Council.

(3) The Council, on appeal so made to it, may confirm, quash or vary any such determination.

9. (1) Notice of an appeal referred to in Clause 7(1) or Clause 8(2) shall be given in writing and shall be delivered to the Registrar within twenty-eight days after the day on which the notice referred to in Clause 6A(1) is deemed to be served.

(2) Notwithstanding Clause 9(1) the Registrar may accept a notice of appeal delivered to him or her within such period as is, in the Registrar's opinion, reasonable in the circumstances where the period specified in Clause 9(1) has expired and where, in the Registrar's opinion, illness or other circumstances beyond the control of the person giving the notice of appeal prevented the notice being given within the period specified in Clause 9(1).
