EMBL Australia Travel Grants for PhD Students

Train at one of EMBL’s five European facilities, go to a conference or take a short course.

EMBL Australia will sponsor ten of the best PhD students in Australia to train at the prestigious European Molecular Biology Laboratory.

With an EMBL Australia PhD travel grant, you could take a short course, attend a conference or work alongside some of the world’s best young researchers at EMBL’s five facilities: in Heidelberg and Hamburg in Germany; Grenoble in France; Hinxton in Cambridgeshire, England; or Monterotondo in Rome, Italy.

You can apply for $3500 for a short visit (up to six weeks), or $7500 for a long-term visit (up to six months).

In 2014 there will be 2 funding rounds.

Round 1 (up to 5 grants available):
Closing Date: November 8th 2013 for the travel period January 1st 2014 to June 30th 2014

Round 2 (up to 5 grants available):
Closing Date: April 4th 2013 for the travel period July 1st 2014 to December 31st 2014

The Travel Grants are open to students in biology, chemistry, physics, mathematics, informatics, engineering and molecular medicine who are currently enrolled in a PhD program at any Australian university, and have not yet submitted a thesis.
