

Epistolary Conversations II:

Letters and Letter Collections in Classical and Late Antiquity

Presented by Australian Catholic University Centre for Early Christian Studies
and
Macquarie University Ancient Cultures
Research Centre

JOINT SYMPOSIUM

The Centre for Early Christian Studies at Australian Catholic University welcomes you to the second one-day seminar held in collaboration with Macquarie University on Epistolary Conversations. The seminar will focus on letters and letter collections in classical Rome and late antiquity. Seven Australian scholars will present on a range of topics, including Pliny the Younger's correspondence, the letters of the apostle Paul, monastic letters on papyrus in Christian Egypt, the Greek letters of the Cappadocian fathers, and Pope Innocent I's Latin letter collections.

Speakers include: David Luckensmeyer (ACU), Michelle Borg (University of Sydney), Geoffrey Dunn (ACU), Malcolm Choat (Macquarie University), Brent Nongbri (Macquarie University), Sarah Gador-Whyte (University of Melbourne/ACU), Amelia Brown (University of Queensland) and Anna Silvas (University of New England).

Date: Friday 30 September 2011. 9.30am to 5.00pm

Venue: Australian Catholic University, 40 Edward Street, North Sydney 2060

All students and scholars of the ancient and early Christian world are welcome to attend this free event.

Lunch will be provided. RSVP to the convenor: Bronwen.Neil@acu.edu.au by 15 September.

