PART 1 PRELIMINARY

1. Name of rules
These Rules may be cited as the ‘Higher Degree Research Rules’.

2. Enactment
These are Rules made by the Council of Macquarie University under section 29 of the Macquarie University Act 1989.

3. Commencement
These Rules take effect on the day on which they are published on the Internet by means of the website of the University or in another official University publication under section 29(c) of the Macquarie University Act 1989 and section 35(4) of the Macquarie University By-law 2005.

4. Application
The Higher Degree Research Rules apply to all Doctoral, Joint Research and Master by Research degrees at Macquarie University.

5. Purpose
The purposes of these Rules are to outline the admission; degree; supervision; and thesis requirements; and connected matters of Higher Degree Research at Macquarie University.

PART 2 INTERPRETATION

6. Interpretation
In these rules:

   Academic Senate means the Academic Senate of the University.
   Award or Award Course means the qualification resulting from the satisfactory completion of a specific program of study or research.
   By-law means the Macquarie University By-law 2005.
   Candidate means a Higher Research Degree candidate.
   Committee means the Higher Degree Research Committee of the Academic Senate.
   Cotutelle means joint enrolment by a student in a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) at Macquarie University and an overseas partner university. A student has supervisors at both universities, spends time at both universities, and submits a single thesis for examination by each university.
   Council means the Council of the University.
Degree means the major qualification awarded by a university. It is awarded either for successful work at undergraduate (bachelor degree) or postgraduate (higher degree) level, or as an honorary recognition (honorary degree) of achievement.

Exclusion means that a student is barred from re-enrolling in a program for a set period.

Faculty means an administrative grouping of research, academic and professional staff and students based on the area they teach, support and study.

Full-time means at least an average weekly commitment by a HDR candidate of 40 hours per week throughout the year on a program of research and advanced study.

HDR means Higher Degree Research.

HDR Handbook and Guide for Candidates and Supervisors means the University’s digital presentation and organisation of information for candidates, which is updated periodically, containing the schedules and listings of Doctoral, Joint Research and Master by Research degrees. It also references University Policies and Rules and other information to assist candidates.

Joint Research Degree means joint enrolment by a student in a program at Macquarie University and selected international partner universities. A student has supervisors at both universities and spends time at both universities. The final thesis is jointly examined and the two universities may jointly award a degree.

MGSM means the Macquarie Graduate School of Management.

Partner University means an institution which has entered into a formal written agreement with Macquarie University to facilitate Higher Degree Research programs.

Part-time means at least an average weekly commitment by a HDR candidate of twenty hours per week throughout the year on a program of research and advanced study.

Testamur means the official document with the University’s seal on it which certifies that a student has been awarded a Higher Degree by Research.

University means the Macquarie University established by the Macquarie University Act 1989.

[Note: The Interpretation Act 1987 of New South Wales applies to these Rules].
