   c. one student member enrolled in a postgraduate higher degree research course; and
   d. one student member from the international student cohort.

10. Elections

1) All elections will be conducted in accordance with Schedule 1 of the By-law.

2) The election for any member under rule 9(3) will be held biennially and the term of office of a member elected at any such election will commence the following January and will expire two years from commencement.

3) The election for any member under rule 9(4) will be held biennially and the term of office of a member elected at any such election will commence in June and will expire two years from commencement.

4) A member who is an ex-officio member of Academic Senate is ineligible for election and if a member elected takes up an ex-officio position, the place occupied by that member will immediately become vacant.

5) Elected members to Academic Senate are eligible to be elected to three consecutive terms of office.

6) When a vacancy occurs in the office of a member of the Academic Senate due to the failure of an electorate to elect a member to the eligible positions, the Academic Senate is to co-opt to membership an eligible member from the relevant electorate, as the case may be.
7) Where a casual vacancy occurs in the office of an elected academic member of the Academic Senate the remaining members of the Academic Senate must proceed to fill the vacancy by co-opting to membership an eligible member from the relevant electorate, as the case may be.

8) Where a casual vacancy exists in the office of a student member an election will be held annually to fill the vacancy.

9) A member of the Academic Senate will be deemed to have vacated office if that member:
   a. dies;
   b. resigns that office by notice in writing;
   c. resigns from the University;
   d. proceeds on leave of absence for a period exceeding nine months;
   e. is absent without leave of the Academic Senate from three consecutive meetings of the Academic Senate; or
   f. in the case of an elected student member, ceases to be a student.

10) Where an elected member of the Academic Senate proceeds on leave of absence from the University for a period exceeding three months but less than nine months, the Academic Senate will:
    a. co-opt an eligible member from the relevant electorate, as the case may be, to fill the vacancy for the period of absence but not beyond the expiry of the term of office on Academic Senate of the member proceeding on leave; and
    b. at the conclusion of that period of leave, allow the member on leave to resume membership of Academic Senate for the balance of the term of office.

11) Where a person other than a member of the Academic Senate is appointed to act in the position of an ex-officio member of Academic Senate, that person will for the purposes of these rules become a member of the Academic Senate during the period of such appointment.

12) Where an elected member of the Academic Senate is appointed to an ex-officio role, the members of the Academic Senate must co-opt to membership an eligible member of the academic staff from the relevant electorate during the period of appointment.

13) Where a casual vacancy occurs in the office of a member of the Academic Senate under rule 9(1)(h) a panel comprising the Chair of Faculty Board of the relevant Faculty, and elected members from the relevant Faculty will nominate eligible staff for co-option.

14) The members of the Academic Senate will elect from the members of Academic Senate:
    a. any full-time academic staff member at level D or E to be Chair of Academic Senate; and
    b. any academic staff member to be Deputy Chair of Academic Senate; to hold office for the ensuing biennium.

15) The elections of Chair and Deputy Chair of Academic Senate will be held biennially in March. The Chair-Elect will overlap with the final three months of the term of the incumbent. The term of office of a Chair elected at any such an election will commence on the first day of July following the member’s election and expire two years from commencement.
16) The Chair and Deputy Chair of Academic Senate are eligible to be elected to three consecutive terms of office.

17) A casual vacancy in the office of either the Chair or Deputy Chair of Academic Senate:
   a. is to be filled by members electing one of their number to be Chair or Deputy Chair as the case may be; and
   b. will result in that person holding office for the residue of the term of office of the Chair or Deputy Chair whose place that person has filled.

18) Any period served in filling a casual vacancy under rule 10(13) or 10(17) does not preclude a person from serving a full three terms in that position if elected at a biennial election.

11. Proceedings
   1) The Secretary to the Academic Senate will be appointed by the Head of Corporate Secretariat and Governance Services.

2) The number of members who constitute a quorum must be half the membership plus one.

3) All questions which come before the Academic Senate will be decided by the majority of the members present and voting at the meeting and the member presiding at the meeting will have a deliberative vote and, in the case of an equality of votes, a casting vote.

4) The Academic Senate may:
   a. determine its own procedures;
   b. request that other persons attend meetings of Academic Senate; and
   c. establish committees to assist it in connection with the exercise of any of its functions.
