

Faculty of Science and Engineering Strategy 2026-2030

OUR EDUCATION

Our education is experiential, purposeful, impactful and collaborative

Priority Areas

- Work-ready graduates of choice
- Distinctive industry- and society-relevant curriculum
- Flexible and sustainable education delivery

Our Education pillar delivers our transformational teaching and learning programs while aligning to MQ education strategy.

OUR RESEARCH

Our research is outstanding and delivers innovative solutions for a flourishing Australia and planet

Priority Areas

- Digital frontiers and intelligent systems
- Sustainable technologies and planetary health
- Bioengineering and health innovations

Our Research pillar delivers support for excellence and integrity in fundamental and applied research while aligning to MQ research strategy.

OUR COMMUNITY

Our community is ambitious, high-performing and enabled for success

Priority Areas

- Empowered and supported staff
- Inclusive and collaborative culture
- Leadership in change and agility

Our Community pillar delivers our connected culture and high-performing workforce while aligning to service excellence.

ENABLING INITIATIVES

underpin our pillars to remove barriers and improve day-to-day operations paving the way for success in all areas of the Faculty.