

Jelum (Fish) are fat and ready for nguhrgoo (hunting) | Mooghoor (Severe storms) are here |
 Yoorroohl (Eels) are ready for nguhrgoo | Yurenguli (Catfish) are ready for nguhrgoo |
 Wugurr (Cobras) are ready for nguhrgoo | Binjugoon (Pipis), Moon. Gurr (Oysters) and
 Mulung (Black mussels) are ready for nguhrgoo | Dirrawong (Goannas) active

The wehburr (fire) threat is real and dangerous.
 Wehburr can spread fast and they can become dangerously intense

The weather is turning and becomes cooler and dry |
 Gwoongwoong (Rainy season) has settled in
 and the Boobuny (floods) are now a threat.
 The swamps fill and the biloon (rivers) rise

Mungurehm (Silky oak) are flowering | Bing.ging
 (Long neck turtle) are laying their eggs | Orchids are flowering |
 Yellow butterfly starts to swarm signalling the Jelum (Mullet run)
 Flightless young Girilipi (swans) ready for nguhrgoo

Mooghoor (storms) have arrived
 They carry a lot of rain, and are severe. They are BITHUNG GNOON
 BITHUNG WURRING
 Gwoongwoong (Rainy season) has settled in
 and the Boobuny (floods) are now a threat.
 The swamps fill and the biloon (rivers) rise

Guburr (Carpet snakes) are ready for nguhrgoo (hunting) after hibernation | Ginibi (Swan) eggs ready for gathering | Jooboorr (Witchetty grubs) ready to eat | Jinoohn (Brolgas) nesting | Goondorr (Bush rats) stop breeding

