

Monday 25 MARCH-----

Venue: Arts Precinct, 25WW C120/121

9.15 Welcome by Distinguished Professor Ingrid Piller, Research Director in Linguistics

9.30 Professor Schierholz, with Gouws/Keromnes/Hollos/Cheung/Yessenali : Introduction to the European Master in Lexicography (EMLex) with an Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degree.

10.15 Opening keynote presentation: Encyclopaedic lexicography: Dr Mary Laughren (Queensland U)

11.00 Morning Tea

Venue: Arts Precinct, 25WW C326

11.30 Dictionaries in their habitats

Professor Gouws: Lexicography in a multicultural and multilingual society

Dr Ganslmayer: Language diversity in Europe

Dr Smith: Family Law terms for immigrant communities in Australia

13.00 LUNCH: Smorgasbord

14.15 Case studies of dictionaries, historical and contemporary

Professor A. Lobenstein-Riechmann: the Early New High German Dictionary

A. Yessenali: Comparative analysis of English collocations dictionaries

A/Professor Evans: Medieval Latin and post-classical Greek lexicography

15.45 Afternoon tea

16.15 User-oriented terminography and lexicography

E/Professor Peters: Easy read online termbank of legal terms for low literacy users

S. Butler & A. Moore: Macquarie Dictionary and interactions with its users (8th edition +)

18.00 Informal dinner on the Macquarie University campus

Tuesday 26 MARCH-----

Venue: Arts Precinct, 25WW C326

9.30 Lexicographic methods

Professor Schierholz: Methods in lexicography and dictionary research

Y. Keromnes: Pragmatics and phraseology in contrast

A/Professor Hollos: Quo vadis, lexicography

11.00 Morning Tea

11.30 Terminology and multimedia lexicography: digitally born

Dr Enriquez Raido: Terminology resources for translators

H/Professor Johnston: Auslan dictionaries in print and online

12.30 Closing discussion on sustainable lexicographic training and research

13.00 Farewell lunch