

6th Australasian Egyptology Conference
Macquarie University, ARTS PRECINCT, 25 Wally's Walk

Thursday 9 June 2022

	Room C122 Function Centre
08:00-08:55	Registration & check-in, Speaker Audiovisual Check-In
Session Chair	Dr Karin Sowada Director, Australian Centre for Egyptology
09:00-09:30	Welcome to Country Erin Wilkins - Dharug woman, cultural educator Welcome to the Conference and Introduction Karin Sowada - Director, Australian Centre for Egyptology
09:30-10:00	Keynote On literacy and education of ancient Egyptian Artists Dimitri Laboury - Gale Visiting Fellow 2022
10:00-10:30	Keynote Power and appearance: statues, stones and hierarchy Simon Connor - Gale Visiting Fellow 2022
10:30-11:00	Group Photo (optional) Morning Tea / Coffee
	Life and Times of Tutankhamun (1) Room C122 Function Centre	Women and Gender (1) Room C120-121	Iconography and History (1) Room C112
Session Chair	Professor Anthony Spalinger University Of Auckland	Dr Sue Kelly Macquarie University	Professor Peter Keegan Macquarie University
11:00-11:30	Tutankhamun: antiquarian and historian Martin Bommas	From political leader to sex icon: how patriarchy transformed Cleopatra VII's achievements into a seduction act Véronique Lacroix	Mining gold for Amun: Papyrus IFAO 'Document A' and the realities of Egyptian gold expeditions Julien Cooper
11:30-12:00	Forensic Egyptology and Tutankhamun Janet Davey	pKahun and women's bodies in translation Jennifer Hellum	I'm all ears: personification in Roman Egyptian coffin vignettes Emily Whitehead
12:00-12:30	'The land was in grave disease [znj-mnt]': Tutankhamun's Restoration Stela, Jan Assmann and 'the trauma of Amarna' Michael Hayes	Polygamy in the Middle Kingdom Kim McCorquodale	Is this the end of pharaonic history? Roberto B. Gozzoli
12:30-13:00	Tutankhamun in TT 148: an analysis of re-used blocks from a temple structure in a Theban tomb Boyo Ockinga	Investigating an enigmatic female title Vivienne Gae Callender	Egyptian mouthpieces: Plato and Egypt Tiana Blazevic-Bastow
13:00-14:00	Lunch
	Life and Times of Tutankhamun (2) Room C122	Women and Gender (2) Room C120-121	Language and Text Analysis (1) Room C112
Session Chair	Professor Martin Bommas Macquarie University	Dr Alexandra Woods Macquarie University	Dr Georgia Barker Macquarie University
14:00-14:30	The message and the medium: interpreting the sources evidencing Tutankhamun's religious restoration Susan Thorpe	Women's engagement in the ideological domain Dynasties 1-6 Sue Kelly	Textual explorations of The Contendings between the Body and the Head (tTurin CGT 58004): gender-bending, analogical argumentation and unusual pedagogical techniques Camilla Di Biase-Dyson
14:30-15:00	Letters, prayers, deeds and reigns. New considerations on the royal succession in the last years of the Amarna period: Akhenaten, Tutankhamun and the Daḥamunzu affair José Pérez Negre	Engendering ancient Egyptian Imperialism in Nubia: nudity, sexualization and coloniality of gender Uroš Matić	How can we study emotions in the ancient Egyptian textual record? An exploration of theoretical and methodological approaches Madeline Jenkins

15:00-15:30	Tutankhamun's Restoration Stela and the failure of Egyptian imperialism in the Levant: fact or fiction? Federico Zangani	Gender-linked titles and status markers: some Middle Kingdom and Second Intermediate Period examples Danijela Stefanović
15:30-15:45	Who holds the key? Investigating Egyptian autoimmunity and the Tutankhamun family cluster Michael Hitches	Australasian Women in Ancient World Studies (AWAWS) Introduction Hannah Vogel	Does it really work? Statements of efficacy in the medical and magical texts of ancient Egypt Tanya Blake
15:45-16:30	Afternoon Tea / Coffee
	Life and Times of Tutankhamun (3) Room C122 Function Centre	Women and Gender (3) Room C120-121	New Kingdom (1) Room C112
Session Chair	Honorary Associate Professor Boyo Ockinga Macquarie University	Dr Thérèse Clarke Macquarie University	Dr Camilla Di Biase Dyson Macquarie University
16:30-17:00	The royal statues of the Tutankhamun tomb Dina Mohsen Hassan Abdel-Aal	Gifts to the Gods – Female Figurines in New Kingdom Egypt Joanne Backhouse	High priests, god's fathers and thieves: studying the temple personnel of Montu in the New Kingdom David Chapman
			Reviewing a wooden chair in the NMEC JE 56353 Nermeen Samir
17:00-17.30	Measuring the effect of the Aton-religion on the Tutankhamun objects: a paleographic study of the four shrines of the king Tutankhamun Mona Mostafa Mohamed El-Sayed		Five administrative ostraca from Sheikh Abd-el-Qurna Faten Kamal
	"Tutankhamun" in the Libyan Period Karim Mohsen El Ridy
17.45-19:45	Conference Reception

6th Australasian Egyptology Conference
Friday 10 June 2022
08:00-08:55	Registration & check-in, Speaker Audiovisual Check-In
	Archaeological Sites Room C122 Function Centre	Old Kingdom (1) Room C120-121	New Kingdom (2) Room C112
Session Chair	Associate Professor Linda Evans Macquarie University	Dr Kim McCorquodale Macquarie University	Dr Dimitri Laboury Université de Liège
09:00-09:30	The powerbrokers of Elephantine Thérèse Clarke	The mummy of Djau and the chronology of the late Old Kingdom Anita Quiles, Karin Sowada, Naguib Kanawati	Investigating the Hypostyle Halls at Karnak: the decorative program of the Khonsu Temple Gillian Smith
09:30-10:00	We all say it's prominent, but what does Qubbet el-Hawa's placement tell us about its origin? Reuben Hutchinson-Wong	Ankhtify's marshes: The ecological and geographical impact of late Old Kingdom climate change John William Burn	Thutmose II: re-evaluating the evidence for an elusive king of the early Eighteenth Dynasty Trent Hugler
10:00-10:30	Morning Tea / Coffee
	Iconography (2) Room C122 Function Centre	Environmental Research Room C120-121	Early Dynastic Egypt Room C112
Session Chair	Dr Simon Connor Université Libre de Bruxelles	Dr John Burn CACHE — Macquarie University	Dr Anna Stevens Monash University and McDonald Institute for Archaeological Research, University of Cambridge

10:30-11:00	Active participation of tomb owners in scenes of the hippopotamus hunt in Middle Kingdom tombs and its significance Georgia Barker	Dog burials found in the Dendara necropolis Mary Hartley	Serekhs and the Cemetery: Tarkhan during the Naqada IIC1 Period Lisa Mawdsley
11:00-11:30	'One of a kind'. Newly discovered workshop scenes in the tomb of Wahty Michelle Hampson	The Brooklyn snake papyrus: why the enigmatic k3r3 is a chameleon Linda Evans	Horus, Seth and Ra in the Second Dynasty: a re-evaluation of gods and kingship Scott J. Allan
11.30-11.45	Individuality in tomb scenes from the Old and Middle Kingdom Natasha Baramilis	The Reclusive Hermit? The history of the crab in ancient Egypt Heather Johnston	The Neolithic Badarian culture of Egypt: a review of social complexity through objects of long-distance exchange Eleonora Ferretti
11.45-12:00	An Introduction to disability in ancient Egypt Hannah Vogel	The welfare effects of branding cattle in the New Kingdom Laura Harris	Composite-creatures of dynastic Egypt: representation and identity Khyya Ryder
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-	Chau Chak Wing Museum Visit - board buses at Macquarie University
	Alternative : Macquarie University History Museum

6th Australasian Egyptology Conference Saturday 11 June 2022

Time	Room C122 Function Centre
08:00-08:55	Registration & check-in, Speaker Audiovisual Check-In
Session Chair	Professor Ronika Power CACHE — Macquarie University
09:00-09:10	Opening Remarks and Welcome Centre for Ancient Cultural Heritage and Environment (CACHE)
09:10-09:40	Metallurgy and the silver bracelets of queen Hetepheres from early 4th Dynasty Giza Karin Sowada, Gil Davis, Timothy Murphy, Damian Gore
09:40-10:10	Moral and calculative elements in Egyptian warfare in the Empire Period Tony Spalinger
10:10-10:40	Archaeologies of afterlives at the Amarna cemeteries Anna Stevens
10:40-11:00	Morning Tea / Coffee
	Projects Room C122 Function Centre	Old Kingdom (2) Room C120-121
Session Chair	Honorary Professor Mark Spigelman	Dr Vivienne Gae Callender Czech Institute of Egyptology
11:00-11:30	The Nicholson Collection Mummy Project: new discoveries through new approaches Conni Lord, James Fraser	The Seshemnefer dilemma: genealogy and succession Gemma Green

11.30-12.00	What is and what is not in the early Middle Kingdom: a case for the role of boundaries Anna-Latifa Mourad	The different faces of the goddess Ma'at in the Egyptian Old Kingdom Shyam Lee-Joe
	Transforming archaeological knowledge on Beni Hassan: theorising the development and cultural effects of a digital archaeological archive Alexandra Woods, Julia Hamilton, Nicolle Leary, Sara Hany Abed
12.00-12:30	"Remember me": funerary practices and memory at the monasteries of Egypt from the fourth to the tenth century CE Alice Younger	Poster Presentations 4 x 5 minutes leading to Poster Session
		Dr Susanne Binder Macquarie University
		The New Kingdom cemeteries at Gurob: towards an archaeology of group belonging in ancient Egypt Tracy Lakin
		Painted by fire: an investigation of Predynastic black-topped pottery Meredith Stewart
		Then and Now: challenging the European construction of ancient Egyptian culture Genevieve Holt
	Funerary apotropaic devices in Egypt's Old Kingdom Kefie Blair
12:30-13:30	Lunch
	Art & Artefacts Room C122 Function Centre	Music & History Room C120-121
Session Chair	Dr Nicolle Leary Macquarie University	Dr Anna-Latifa Mourad Macquarie University
13:30-14:00	Senseneb's shabti and the dispersal of TT15 Candace Richards	The Levantine campaign of Shoshenq I and interpretation of the Bubastis Portal Stuart Ibrahim
14:00-14:30	Falcons, ships, and bulls: figural graffiti on Old Kingdom monuments in Saqqara Julia Hamilton	Music in ancient Egypt and its beginnings. latest research in music archaeology (presentation including live music) Heidi Köpp-Junk
14:30-15:00	The Memphite necropolis through the Amarna Period: a study of private patronage and transmission of iconographic motifs Nico Staring	Dancing from Karnak to Luxor: acrobatic dance and processions in the New Kingdom Miriam Bueno Guardia
15:00-15:30	Afternoon Tea / Coffee
	Architecture Room C122 Function Centre	Science and Archaeology Room C120-121
Session Chair	Dr Gillian Smith Macquarie University	Dr Karin Sowada Director, Australian Centre For Egyptology
15:30-16:00	Squares and circles: questioning assumptions about ancient Nubian and Egyptian domestic architecture Aaron M. de Souza	The Synchrotron imaging of a cat mummy Christopher J Davey, Joseph Bevitt, Matt White
16:00-16:30	The development of the post-Hawara pyramids: an early date for the South Saqqara Unfinished Pyramid? Helen Neale

16:30-17:00	How to make an Egyptian false door Melanie Pitkin, Helen Strudwick, Martin Odler, Jiří Kmošek, Andrew Tanser, Trevor F. Emmett, Geoffrey Killen
17.00-17.15	Closing the 6th Australasian Egyptology Conference
END OF CONFERENCE		