Executive Departure Announcement

On behalf of the ISQua Board and staff, we are writing to inform you that Dr Peter Lachman will be stepping down as CEO of ISQua & ISQua EEA. After 5 years at ISQua, Peter will depart at the end of April 2021.

Peter Lachman M.D. MPH. M.B.B.Ch., FRCPCH, FCP (SA), FRCPI assumed the position of ISQua Chief Executive Officer on 1st May 2016. During his tenure he has increased the visibility and profile of the organisation both nationally and internationally, helped grow our Membership and Education programmes, developed new business opportunities, and increased our outreach to low and lower-middle income countries.

"We would like to offer our sincere gratitude to Peter for the work he has done to bring ISQua so far along the way in its journey of success. Allow us to lead ISQua's international community and Peter's many friends and colleagues around the world in thanking him greatly for his contributions and efforts – and to wish him all the very best in his future endeavours," ISQua President, Wendy Nicklin and President Elect, Jeffrey Braithwaite.

In accordance with its succession planning policy the ISQua Board will now source a new CEO, as the current CEO's term ends in April 2021. Details about the CEO position are available in the link below.

The Board is seeking an experienced and proven leader who will bring both strong strategic and operational competence to the organisation. The Chief Executive Officer will have the capacity and personal characteristics to lead the organisation and will display the highest levels of integrity.

If you feel you have the necessary skills and qualifications to carry out this role, confidential enquiries about the position can be made to: Professor Jeffrey Braithwaite, President Elect.
