

The Andrew Vincent Memorial Lecture

The Macquarie University Centre for Middle East and North African Studies is proud to host Professor Ghassan Hage for the Third Annual Andrew Vincent Memorial Lecture on October 21 at 7pm in Theatrette E6A102, Macquarie University.

Professor Ghassan Hage is a Fellow of the Australian Academy of the Humanities, and he is the University of Melbourne's Future Generation Professor of Anthropology and Social Theory.

Ghassan Hage has held many prestigious visiting professorships including at Harvard University, L'École des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales in Paris, the University of Copenhagen and the American University of Beirut. He is now based at the University of Melbourne.

Please email your RSVP to mecentre@mq.edu.au by 14 October to reserve your seating.