Course Details
The seminar/workshop will be led by Prof. Angela Scarino, one of the internationally renowned authority in Intercultural Language Learning and Teaching. The seminar/workshop will take a hands on heuristic format, and will explore the latest development of Intercultural Language Learning (IcLL) in the classroom context. This learning event is open to all NSW language teachers across all languages. The workshop will address the key element of Intercultural Language Learning, how to implement it in classroom, assessment and cross-curriculum capabilities and priorities in language classroom.

Prof. Angela Scarino is an Associate Professor in Applied Linguistics in the School of Communication, International Studies and Languages at the University of South Australia and is the Director of the Research Centre for Languages and Cultures. Her research expertise is in languages education in linguistically and culturally diverse societies, second language learning, second language curriculum design, learning-oriented assessment, intercultural language learning and second language teacher education. She has been a chief investigator on a number of research grants.

Completing this seminar will contribute 2 hours of NESA Registered PD addressing 1.3.2, 6.2.2 and 6.4.2 from the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers towards maintaining Proficient Teacher Accreditation in NSW.
