Qualifications & Positions

Qualifications

- PhD Research Degree in Psychology
Macquarie Centre for Cognitive Science, Macquarie University, Sydney, 2007 – 2009
School of Psychology, University of New South Wales, Sydney, 2006
PhD awarded April 2010
Supervisors: Associate Professor Amanda Barnier and Professor John Sutton
Thesis title: Social Aspects of Memory
- Bachelor of Science (Advanced - Life Sciences)
School of Psychology, University of New South Wales, Sydney, 2000 – 2003
Honours completed 2003

Post-doctoral Research Positions

- Australian Research Council Discovery Early Career Researcher (DECRA), from June 2015
  - NB. 6 months of parental leave from February to August, 2016
- Macquarie University Research Fellowship, February 2012 – June 2015
  - NB. 6 months of parental leave from March to September, 2013

- Postdoctoral Research Fellow, February 2011 – February 2012
Center on Autobiographical Memory Research, Aarhus University, Denmark

Research Assistance

- Senior Research Assistant, January 2007 – January 2011
Macquarie Centre for Cognitive Science, Macquarie University, Australia
- Research Assistant, November 2003 – January 2007
School of Psychology, University of New South Wales

Publications and Presentations

My publications reflect my interests in social aspects of memory, autobiographical memory, and applications of memory research. They include: 2 chapters in edited books, 15 peer reviewed articles in international journals (published or in press), and 3 other publications. I have also presented and been a co-author on national and international conference talks, conference posters, and departmental seminars. I list my publications, conference presentations and seminars in reverse chronological order, with the newest first.

Grants and Awards

External Grants and Fellowships

- Australian Research Council Discovery Early Career Researcher Award (2015-2018). "What are the active ingredients of successful shared remembering?", $342,000.
- Australian Research Council Discovery Projects (2013-2015), "When and how does remembering with others help memory, especially as we age?", $297,759; with A. Barnier and G. Savage (Macquarie University), S. Rajaram (Stony Brook University, USA), & D. Balota, (Washington University in St Louis, USA).
- Alzheimers Australia Victoria Dementia Research Grants (2013-2014), "What kinds of support systems help people to remember in daily life, especially as their memories start to fail?"$49,950; with A. Barnier, J. Sutton, & G. Savage (Macquarie University).
- Academy for the Social Sciences in Australia International Sciences Linkage Grant (February, 2010), $7500. Funding to establish a new international collaboration; with J. Sutton (Macquarie University), and R. Dixon (University of Alberta, Canada).
- ARC Postgraduate Scholarship (February, 2006), $20,000 per year stipend.

Internal/University Grants and Fellowships

- Macquarie University Research Development Grant (2016), 'More than the sum of their parts: How do individual skills and attributes influence group remembering?', $50,000. Funding for research development, with P. Van Bergen, A. Barnier, and J. Sutton (Macquarie).
- ARC Centre of Excellence in Cognition and its Disorders (CCD) Cross-Program Support Scheme (September, 2015), "'Lost for words" - Exploring how language disruption impacts social interactions in dementia', $39, 656. Funding for collaborative research, with M. Irish, A. Barnier, R. Thornton, S. Crain, and O. Piguet.

- ARC Centre of Excellence in Cognition and its Disorders (CCD) Cross-Program Support Scheme (September, 2014), 'Our song: Music evoked collaborative memory in couples with and without acquired brain injury', $31,000. Funding for collaborative research, with A. Baird, W. Thompson, N. Bullot, J. Sutton, A. Barnier (Macquarie University), and L. Miller (Sydney University).
- Macquarie University Faculty of Human Sciences Equipment Grant Scheme, (2013), 'Three kits of portable, six line, high definition audio recording equipment for research involving interviews off and on campus', $6,330. Funding for audio recording equipment, with A. Barnier, P. Van Bergen, D. McIlwain, J. Sutton, A. Congleton (Macquarie University), and M. Meade (Montana State University, USA).
- Perspectives in Human Sciences Workshop Series, Faculty of Human Sciences, Macquarie University (August, 2012), 'Scaffolding Memory across the Lifespan', $8000. Funding to conduct a workshop.
- ARC Centre of Excellence in Cognition and its Disorders (CCD) Belief Program Funding Scheme (August, 2012), 'Cue content and cue context', $17,642. Funding to conduct collaborative research, with J. Sutton, A. Barnier (Macquarie University), & A. R. O'Connor (St Andrews University, UK).
- CCD Cross Program Support Scheme (2012), 'Belief in memory', $40,000. Funding to conduct collaborative research with A. Barnier, G. Savage, R. Cox, J. Sutton, N. Bullot, E. Connaughton, A. Cordonnier, A. Selwood, M. Temler, K. Williamson, & P. Keil, (Macquarie University), M. Irish, UNSW, & D.R. Addis & A. Devitt, (University of Auckland, New Zealand).
- CCD Belief Formation Program Funds, 2012, 'Computerisation of experimental flowsheets and scoresheets', $5,377. Funding to develop more efficient, computerised systems for conducting experiments, with A. Barnier, R. Cox, V. Polito, A. Janczuk, J. Sutton, A. Congleton, C. Richardson, M. Ockenden, & S. Saunders (Macquarie University).
- Faculty of Human Sciences Visiting Fellowship, Macquarie University (February, 2012), $6000. Funding to establish a new international collaboration, with A. R. O'Connor (St Andrews University, UK).
- Macquarie University Research Fellowship, Macquarie University (February 2012 – February 2015), "Shared remembering and memory compensation in older couples", salary plus $49,917 research costs over three years. This competitive fellowship has a success rate between 4% and 7%.

Prizes

- Macquarie University Research Excellence Awards: Early Career Researcher of the Year (2014). Highly commended.
- Vice Chancellors Commendation, Macquarie University (February, 2010). This award was given in recognition of outstanding achievement in my field of research and PhD work of an exceptionally high standard.
- Macquarie University Higher Degree Excellence Award, Macquarie University (December, 2008). This award is given annually for students who demonstrate high achievement in their postgraduate research career.

- Macquarie University Postgraduate Research Fund, Macquarie University (June, 2008), $4000; plus Faculty Dean's Award for outstanding application, additional $500. Funding for international research visits and conference travel.

Professional Experience

Supervision

- Primary supervisor, PhD level, 2013-current
Department of Cognitive Science, Macquarie University, Australia
  - Catherine Browning
  - Nikolas Williams
- Associate supervisor, PhD level, 2012 – current
Department of Cognitive Science, Macquarie University, Australia
  - Katya Numbers
  - Amanda Selwood
- Primary supervisor, Honours level, 2014-current
Department of Psychology, Macquarie University, Australia
  - Joseph Kokotovic (2015)
    - Thesis title: How Does Distribution of Knowledge Influence Collaborative Recall?
  - Amy-Lee Sesel (2014)
    - Thesis title: Memory Impairment and the Costs and Benefits of Collaborative Recall
    - 1st Prize winner “Best Undergraduate Student Poster” at the CCD Annual Workshop, Macquarie University, 2014
    - 2nd Place “Best Poster” at the Australasian Conference of Undergraduate Research, Australian National University, 2014.
    - 1st Class Honours Awarded
- Co-supervisor, Honours level, 2012
Department of Psychology, Macquarie University, Australia
  - Jenn Broekhuijse (2012)
    - Thesis title: Sowing What They'll Reap: Benefits of Shared Remembering in Intimate Couples
    - 1st Class Honours Awarded

Teaching

- Guest Lecturer, October 2015
School of Psychology, Macquarie University, Australia
I gave a guest lecture on ‘Self and Autobiographical Memory’ in a 3rd year undergraduate Personality course.
- Guest Seminar Leader, April 2015
Department of Cognitive Science, Macquarie University, Australia
I led a seminar on “What is Memory For” in a postgraduate Cognitive Science course.

- Guest Lecturer, October 2014
School of Psychology, Macquarie University, Australia
I gave a guest lecture on 'Self and Autobiographical Memory' in a 3rd year undergraduate Personality course.
- Guest lecturer, May 2014
Department of Cognitive Science, Macquarie University
I led the discussion as a 'guest expert' in a graduate cognitive science seminar on 'Human Memory'.
- Graduate student workshop on Qualitative Analysis, November 2013
Department of Cognitive Science, Macquarie University
I was invited by graduate students to contribute to a hands-on workshop on qualitative analysis.
- Guest Lecturer, October 2013
School of Psychology, Macquarie University, Australia
I gave a guest lecture on 'Self and Autobiographical Memory' in a 3rd year undergraduate Personality course.
- Seminar Leader and guest lecturer, August 2012 – October 2012
School of Psychology, Macquarie University, Australia
I developed and convened a 3rd year undergraduate seminar series on 'Self and Memory in a Social Context'. I also gave a guest lecture in the Personality course on 'Self and Autobiographical Memory'.
- Lecturer and course convenor, September 2011 – November 2011
Psychology Institute, Aarhus University, Denmark
I developed, convened, and taught a new Bachelors/Masters course on 'Interdisciplinary Approaches to Social Memory'.
- Guest lecturer, September 2010
School of Psychology, University of Alberta, Canada
I presented a guest lecture in a graduate research methods class on 'Studying Groups'
- Tutor, July 2007 – November 2007
School of Psychology, Macquarie University, Australia
I co-taught a 3rd year undergraduate psychology course on 'Repression'.

Editorial and Reviewer Work

- Co-editor, 2014 - 2017
'Collaborative Remembering: Theory, Research, and Application'
I was invited to act as a co-editor on a book, with the proposal approved by Oxford University Press in 2014 and the book published in 2017 (see publications).
- Invited Reviewer, 2014
MIT Press
As an expert on memory, I was invited to read a book manuscript and review its suitability for publication by MIT Press.
- Editorial Assistant, January 2011 – April 2012

'Memory Studies'

I assisted with the administration of book reviews, including sending out requests for books, inviting potential reviewers, keeping track of reviews and publication timelines, and providing general assistance to the book review editor.

- Editorial Assistant , January 2007 – November 2007
Special Issue of 'Memory' on 'Collective Memory: Theoretical and Empirical Approaches'

I assisted the editors with all administrative aspects of producing the special issue, such as keeping track of submissions and timelines, sending letters to invite reviewers and keeping track of the review process, sending out letters to authors, and general assistance to the editors of the special issue.

- Reviewer, 2007 – present

I am regularly invited to peer review articles for publication, including for the following journals: 'Applied Cognitive Psychology', 'Advances in Cognitive Psychology', 'Anxiety, Stress, & Coping', 'Cognition and Emotion', 'Journal of Experimental Psychology: Learning, Memory, & Cognition', 'Memory', 'Memory and Cognition', 'Personality and Individual Differences', 'Social Cognition'

Committees and Service

- Faculty of Human Sciences Research Committee, ECR representative, 2017
- Faculty of Human Sciences ECR Committee, Cognitive Science Representative, 2017
- Australasian Society for Philosophy and Psychology Advisory Committee, 2017

Conference and Workshop Organisation

- Workshop Organising Committee Member, 2016
Macquarie University Faculty of Human Sciences Early Career Researcher Day
- Conference Organising Committee Member, 2014-present
The Society for Applied Research in Memory and Cognition conference, Sydney 2017
- Workshop Organising Committee Member, 2013
The Macquarie Collaborative Cognition Team's Memory Day 2013

I assisted with organising this interdisciplinary workshop including local and international keynote speakers, focused on themes of Memory, Cognition, and Collaboration in Aging; and Memory Intervention: Translating from the Lab to the Wild. This workshop also involved a featured public lecture and media coverage.

- Workshop Chair, 2012
Human Science Perspectives on "Scaffolding Memory Across the Lifespan", Macquarie University.

After receiving competitive funding, I was the Chair of the Organising Committee for this specialised workshop. I organised all aspects of the scientific program, and managed the administration of the conference.

- Workshop Co-convenor, 2012

Matchpoints Conference – “Conflict in Memory: Interpersonal and Intergenerational Remembering of War, Conflict and Transition”, Aarhus University

I assisted with organising a Psychology workshop for this interdisciplinary, specialised conference on memory.

- Conference Organising Committee Member, 2009
The 9th Conference of the Australasian Society for Cognitive Science, Macquarie University

ASCS09 was an interdisciplinary conference held at Macquarie University in October 2009. I was responsible for attending meetings and assistance with decision making, as well as specifically responsible for organising the volunteers, and organising the day to day running of the conference.

- Organising Committee Member, 2007
Linguistics & Psychology Divisional Postgraduate Research Festival, Macquarie University

The Research Festival at Macquarie University is a 2-day conference style event where postgraduate students are required to present their work. I was responsible for attending meetings and assistance with decision making, as well as specifically responsible for organising the program, and helping to ensure that the Festival ran smoothly.

- Organising Committee Member, 2006
The 4th International Conference on Memory, University of New South Wales

ICOM-4 attracted over 600 national and international delegates to the University of New South Wales in July 2006. I was involved in organising all aspects of the conference for one year before it was held. My major duties included attending meetings, managing submissions, dealing with registrations and finances, managing and balancing the $200,000+ budget, answering all email enquiries, and being the point of contact for delegates during the conference itself.
