SCHEDULE 1: SHARED RESPONSIBILITY FOR ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

1 PURPOSE

The pursuit of academic integrity is a shared responsibility across the University. The University, its staff and its students have a role in maintaining a positive culture that supports the values of academic integrity.

This schedule supports the implementation of the Academic Integrity Policy and articulates the collective and individual responsibilities that underpin a transparent and holistic approach to academic integrity.

2 SCHEDULE

(1) Fostering academic integrity within the University is an essential element of an ethical education and culture. It is the responsibility of all members of staff and students of the University to:
   a. demonstrate and uphold the values of academic integrity;
   b. be familiar with the policies, procedures and supporting materials that promote and uphold academic integrity; and
   c. create and maintain a supportive environment for their colleagues and peers.

(2) To embed a culture of academic integrity, the University is responsible for:
   a. providing a supportive and safe environment;
   b. providing resources and support to staff to assist them in providing guidance and feedback to students;
   c. providing resources and support to students to develop their knowledge and skills; and
   d. maintaining transparent rules and procedures regarding the management of alleged academic integrity breaches, including learning and teaching and research.

(3) The University’s Academic Senate and Committees of Academic Senate are responsible for:
   a. developing and maintaining transparent policies and procedures designed to promote and uphold academic integrity values;
   b. receiving, considering and appropriately responding to annual reports on academic integrity breaches including those that have amounted to academic misconduct; and
   c. making recommendations to the Vice-Chancellor and Deputy Vice-Chancellors with regards to academic misconduct trends and appropriate quality assurance mechanisms.

(4) The University Hearing Committee, MUIC Hearing Committee and the Faculty Hearing Committees are responsible for:
a. ensuring consistency of practice in relation to penalties against academic integrity breaches; and
b. providing annual reports detailing allegations, findings and penalties of academic integrity policy breaches to the relevant Faculty Board, Academic Senate and University Council.

(5) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Registrar Office is responsible for:
   a. developing and maintaining the University-wide academic integrity module that is to be available to all students and staff;
   b. making development resources available to all students which build on education provided by the academic integrity module;
   c. maintaining resources on the website that are relevant and available to students and staff;
   d. establishing and maintaining University-wide systems and practices for prevention and detection in relation to the maintenance of academic integrity in learning and teaching activities.

(6) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research) Office is responsible for:
   a. developing and maintaining the research components to be embedded in the University-wide academic integrity module;
   b. making development resources available to all students engaged in research activities which build on education provided by the academic integrity module;
   c. maintaining resources on the website that are relevant and available to students and staff engaged in research activities;
   d. establishing and maintaining University-wide systems and practices for prevention and detection in relation to the maintenance of academic integrity in research activities.

(7) Within their Faculty, Executive Deans and Faculty Boards are responsible for:
   a. monitoring the implementation of this policy; and
   b. reporting on issues, responses to issues and providing recommendations in relation to academic integrity to Academic Senate and Committees of Academic Senate.

(8) Within Macquarie University International College (MUIC), the Director and the MUIC Subcommittee are responsible for:
   a. monitoring the implementation of this policy; and
   b. reporting on issues, responses to issues and providing recommendations in relation to academic integrity to Academic Senate and Committees of Academic Senate.

(9) Relevant to their portfolio, Associate Deans and Associate Director (MUIC Programs), are responsible for:
   a. implementing this policy within their Faculty;
   b. promoting good academic practice for all activities offered by their Faculty;
   c. reporting regularly to the Executive Dean via the Faculty Board on steps taken to support academic integrity within the Faculty, including pro-active and reactive approaches following reported breaches of the academic integrity policy.

(10) Students are responsible for:
a. when engaging with an academic exercise, acting consistently with the standards set out in Schedule 2: Definitions of Academic Activities; and
b. notifying suspected breaches of academic integrity in accordance with the relevant disciplinary process.

(11) Professional Staff are responsible for:
