MEMBERSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

U@MQ Limited (U@MQ) is a controlled entity of Macquarie University. It administers the Sport & Aquatic Centre ("Centre") and the Macquarie University Sport Fields and grounds ("Sport Fields") (together, the "Facilities") on behalf of Macquarie University. By submitting the Membership Application Form, the person seeking membership agrees to entering into an agreement with U@MQ (referred to as a "Membership Agreement") on the terms and conditions set out in the Membership Application Form (including the Membership Terms and Conditions). U@MQ reserves the right to not accept a Membership Application Form in its absolute discretion in which circumstance no Membership Agreement will be formed. When a Membership Application Form is accepted by U@MQ, the person seeking membership will be referred to as a "Member" and will have the usage rights and obligations as set out in the Membership Terms and Conditions.

In this Membership Agreement, the term "Parent" refers to the legal parent or guardian of a child or of a person with a physical or mental disability who lacks capacity to understand the risk warning on the Membership Application Form ("incapable person"). The Parent of an incapable person enters into this Membership Agreement on his or her own behalf and as agent for each incapable person named on the Membership Application Form.

1. MEMBERSHIP

Membership commences on the date stated on the Membership Application Form. The Member must present their membership card or photo identification to gain entry. A $2.50 fee will be charged to replace lost or stolen membership cards. Membership is personal to the Member and memberships cannot be assigned or transferred to another person. The General Manager, or their nominated representative, reserves the right to cancel this Membership Agreement and request return of this membership card at their discretion. MQ Sport Memberships incur an additional joining and renewal fee.

This Membership Agreement is legally binding whether the membership is on a term, direct debit or salary sacrifice basis.

2. AGE REQUIREMENT

Members must be 16 years or older. If the Member is a child over 16 years of age, or is an incapable person, a Parent must sign the Membership Agreement on their behalf. Some parts of the Facilities and services are not available to Members under 18 years of age, incapable persons, or children under 16 years of age.

3. CHANGES TO MEMBERSHIP

All requests for changes to Memberships (including contact details) must be submitted on the appropriate form at the Customer Service Desk at the Centre or online. U@MQ will not process membership changes, including but not limited to suspension and cancellation requests, over the phone.

4. FEES

Membership fees are set out in the Membership Application Form.

U@MQ periodically reviews its membership terms and conditions and membership fees and inclusions. U@MQ will provide at least fourteen (14) days' notice prior to any proposed change in membership terms and conditions, fees and inclusions by posting such changes on its website or by emailing Members at the contact email on record. The Cooling Off Period does not apply where a membership is renewed.

Direct Debit Memberships and Salary Sacrifice Memberships may be suspended in accordance with this clause 6. Term memberships may not be suspended under any circumstances, excluding for medical conditions.

Suspension requests must be made for a minimum of seven (7) consecutive days. Suspension requests may take up to five (5) business days to be processed. Suspension requests cannot be backdated. It is the responsibility of the Member to cancel their membership. Requests for variances, suspensions and cancellations must be made directly with U@MQ at the Centre. Non-attendance does not warrant a refund or cancellation. Cancellation requests must be submitted on the appropriate form at the Customer Service Desk at the Centre or online.

Term Memberships may not be cancelled and are not refundable under any circumstances, including for medical conditions.

Cancellation requests for Direct Debit Memberships require fifteen (15) days' prior notice and will not be accepted if the Member is in arrears. Memberships cannot be cancelled and suspended simultaneously. The fifteen (15) days' notice period for a membership cancellation begins on the day that a membership ceases to be suspended.

Cancellation requests for Salary Sacrifice Memberships require one full fortnightly deduction period to be processed. It is the Member's responsibility to give written notice to U@MQ at the Centre to cease salary sacrifice deductions and to cancel the Authority to Deduct when the Member's employment with Macquarie University is terminated. Macquarie University Human Resources will not process any changes to deductions directly.

Medical cancellations are available for Direct Debit and Salary Sacrifice Memberships where a Member has a medical condition precluding participation in the membership for a minimum four (4) consecutive weeks. U@MQ may charge a $7.50 failed payment fee for each unsuccessful debit transaction as well as dishonour fees charged by U@MQ's financial institution, in addition to any charges it receives from the Member's financial institution. If Members have outstanding debts, they may be denied access to the Facilities.

U@MQ will take reasonable steps to contact Members if a direct debit payment is not made. U@MQ will implement re-debit measures as necessary to recover any outstanding debts. U@MQ may, at its discretion and without notice, cancel a membership if fees are in arrears. The amount owing may be passed on to a debt collection agency for recovery.
