When you lose someone close to you, a donation to Macquarie University will honour your loved one and help their memory to live on.

In making this gift, you are not only supporting vital research programs, important community projects and the lives of our students, but you are recognising and honouring your loved one in a very special way.

YOUR GIFT WILL HELP MACQUARIE TO:
• engage in scholarship, innovation and transformative learning
• expand our research
• contribute to worldwide solutions to global challenges.

100 per cent of each gift will be directed to the cause you specify.

Thank you for helping to make a difference.
