Section 8 – Checklist of Application and Supporting Documents

You are responsible for ensuring that your application is complete and contains all required supporting documentation. Please be aware that it can take, on average, 6-8 weeks to process a research application; submitting an incomplete application may cause delays or prevent your application from being processed. Please note that original documents will NOT be returned to applicants. Please provide certified copies of any official documents if you need to retain the originals.

Additional forms, such as referee report forms, can be downloaded from our website at http://www.hdr.mq.edu.au/information_about/forms

* A certified copy must be signed and dated by an authorised officer and affixed with the verifier's official stamp or seal and registration number (if applicable), and should include the statement 'This is a true copy of the original document sighted by me'. The verifier should also print their name, profession or occupation, organisation name, and contact telephone number.

Macquarie University accepts certified documents from the following authorised officers: an Australian Justice of the Peace, a notary, or an official records officer from the institution that issued the original document (such as a university registrar). English translations of documents must be certified as accurate translations of the original documents by an official registered translator. All other types of certified documents and translations will not be accepted.

Compulsory Documentation for All Applicants
I have included the following compulsory documents: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> ONE set of my complete application. Section 9 – Declaration

Privacy and Right to Information

Macquarie University is subject to the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW) and the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 (NSW). Macquarie University collects the information on this application form for the primary purpose of meeting its obligations under the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000, the Education Services for Overseas Students Regulations 2001 and the National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training for Students 2009 (National Code). Macquarie University also collects your personal information and, in some circumstances, information regarding your health, to assist in the assessment of your application and, if you are successful, offering you a course place and recording your acceptance of that offer. The other purposes of collection include corresponding with you, attending to day-to-day administrative matters, informing you about your courses and other aspects of admission or enrolment and complying with legislative reporting requirements. While your personal information is generally collected from you, Macquarie University also collects information about you (such as official records of study) from other educational institutions that you have attended for the purpose of verifying the supporting documentation you have provided with your application.

The information you provide in your application (and, if your application is successful, any offer letter) is recorded on the University's student database and may be disclosed to the following types of organisations:

- government departments (such as the Department of Immigration and Citizenship and the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations and agencies involved in administering the ESOS legislation);
- external organisations (such as other tertiary education institutions) where disclosure is necessary to verify your previous qualifications and other supporting documentation provided with your application;
- University-owned entities;
- contracted service providers which the University uses to provide services on its behalf (such as banks, printers/ mailing houses and IT service providers);
- where required by law.

If you do not provide the required information, the University will not be able to consider you for admission or to enrol you.

You are able to gain access to any personal information and health information that the University holds about you, subject to any exceptions in relevant legislation. To obtain access, or if you have any questions about the handling of your personal information, please write to: Higher Degree Research Office, Level 3, C5C East, Macquarie University, North Ryde NSW 2109 or email: hdfuture@mq.edu.au.

1. I declare that the information supplied by me in this application is true, accurate and complete and that I have supplied all required supporting documents. I understand that Macquarie may request original copies of any submitted documents for the purpose of verification. I acknowledge that all documents submitted will become the property of Macquarie University and will not be returned to me.
2. I understand that the information collected on this form is to enable Macquarie University to assess my application, create a record on its student database, undertake statistical analysis, meet any statutory reporting requirements, and to further inform me about the program to which I am applying. If I do not complete all the relevant sections of this form, or fail to supply all required supporting documentation, I acknowledge that it may not be possible for Macquarie University to process my application.
3. I hereby authorise Macquarie University to make enquiries and to obtain official records from any university or tertiary institution concerning my current or previous attendance, which in its absolute discretion, it believes to be necessary.
4. I understand that giving false and misleading information is a serious offence under the Criminal Code of the Australian Commonwealth and acknowledge that Macquarie University reserves the right to reverse any decision made about my application for candidature and/or scholarship if it is found that I have provided false or incomplete information.
5. Should my application be successful, I agree to comply with Macquarie University's rules and policies as set out on the University Higher Degree Research Office (HDRO) website (<http://www.hdr.mq.edu.au/>) and elsewhere on the Macquarie University website, along with any subsequent amendments approved by the University Higher Degree Research Committee.

6. I understand that information collected about me on this form and during my enrolment may be released, in certain circumstances, to the Australian Commonwealth and State agencies under the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Act 2000; and to the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations (DEEWR) and that DEEWR will collect and store my personal information; or as required to be disclosed by law.
7. I authorise Macquarie University to access the Department of Immigration and Citizenship's Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) for verification of my current visa status and entitlements.
8. I declare that I () have / () have not been currently/previously under research misconduct investigation(s) in any form (for example: fabrication, falsification, plagiarism etc).
