

Our Mission

To undertake excellent problem-focused and solution-focused research that promotes decent work, sustainable economic development and inclusion through collaboration with scholars and external stakeholders

Macquarie University Strategic Priority Two

An accelerating and impactful performance in discovery

Macquarie University Strategic Priority Four

Creating an innovation nexus where Macquarie and our partners contribute solutions to the world and develop lasting relationships

Macquarie University Strategic Priority Five

Emboldening Macquarie University's recognition and international presence

Centre for Workforce Futures, Faculty of Business and Economics

provides expertise in the fields of Accounting, Actuarial Studies, Demography, Economics, Employment and Industrial Relations, History, HRM, Information Systems, International Business, Labour Law, Linguistics, Management, Marketing, Media and Cultural Studies, Medical Informatics, Organisation Studies, Operations Management, Philosophy, Sociology, Supply Chains and new forms of work organisation.

Its members contribute to the creation of knowledge and new ways of thinking and the formulation of policies, practices and strategies.

LOCAL TRENDS

IMMIGRATION

PROFITS AND WAGES

THE GIG ECONOMY

PRECARIOUS EMPLOYMENT

SKILLING AND LEARNING

PAST LESSONS

GLOBAL TRENDS

- NEW TECHNOLOGIES
- THE ENVIRONMENT
- GLOBALISATION

FUTURE POSSIBILITIES

A VIRTUOUS CIRCLE?

OUTCOMES?

WHAT VALUE DO WE ADD?

Value Proposition

The Centre is the knowledge partner for individuals, companies, governments and not-for-profits. It's mission is to be a trusted and proven collaborator in all matters related to advancement of ideas, policies and processes that can enhance decent work, productivity, well-being, sustainable business outcomes and community benefits

WHAT DO WE PRODUCE?

- Outputs
- Research networks & collaborations
  - Research Projects
  - Publications:
    - scholarly articles & Conference papers
    - Industry Reports
    - Government submissions
  - Dissemination
    - Public Lectures
    - Roundtables
    - Conferences
    - Symposia & Seminars
  - Students
  - Partnerships
    - Consultancies
    - Clinical appointments
    - Adjunct appointments

WHO'S INVOLVED?

- Co-deliverers
- Centre Members:
    - Subject Matter Experts
    - Advisory Committees
    - Scholarly & Industry "Connectors"
    - "Champions"
  - Alumni
  - Students (U/G, P/G, HDR)
  - Adjuncts
  - Governments
  - Businesses
  - Agencies
  - Foundations
  - NFPs & Charities
  - Unions
  - Managers
  - Regulators

WHERE DO WE WANT TO BE?

Ultimate Impact

The Centre for Workforces Futures is regarded as the institution of choice for research into all matters of Decent Work in Australia

The Centre is a thought leader in workforce & workplace matters in Australia

The Centre has sustainable networks of association in the wide community

The Centre has sustainable outreach programmes across the wider community

- Centre members appreciate that their role in external engagement is to contribute to:
- Exchanging knowledge
  - Collaborating with stakeholders
  - Obtaining funding for work
  - Obtaining repeat projects
  - Contributing to outcomes
  - Raising the profile of the Centre

