Late Roman and Early Byzantine Politics Day
Organised by Dr Meaghan McEvoy
15th November, 9:00am-5:00pm
W3A 328 Moot Court

SCHEDULE

9.00 – 9.10 – Welcome

9.40 – 10.10: Caillan Davenport (MQ): Did People Gossip About Late Roman Emperors?

10.10-10.30: Morning Tea

10.30-11.00: Byron Waldron (Sydney): The Invisible Feminae of Diocletian: The Medial Representation of Imperial Women in the Tetrarchic Period
11.00-11.30: Nicola Ernst (UQ): Constantius II, Julian, and the Christians
12.00-12.30: Mark Hebblewhite (UNSW): Theodosius I: An Accidental Emperor?

12.30-1.30: Lunch

1.30-2.00: Alexandra Kujanpaa (MQ): The Role of Child Augustae: Pulcheria and Justa Grata Honoria
2.00-2.30: Paul Roche (Sydney): The Rider and the Horse: Exemplarity and Self-Fashioning in the Satisfactio of Dracontius
2.30-3.00: Meaghan McEvoy (MQ): Sharing the Imperial Limelight: magistri militum at Court in the Fifth Century

3.00-3.30: Afternoon Tea

3.30-4.00: Amelia Brown (UQ): The Politics of Public Portrait Sculpture in Late Antiquity
4.00-4.30: Ryan Strickler (MQ): It’s the End of the World as We Know It: Apocalyptic Kaiserkritik in Sixth-Century Byzantine Literature
4.30-5.00: Alanna Nobbs (MQ): Setting the Scene: The Landscape of Late Antique Studies 50 Years Ago

Attendance is free but space is limited
Email meaghan.mcevoy@mq.edu.au to register by 5th November