NON-AWARD STUDIES – DEPARTMENTAL UNIT RESTRICTIONS

The University offers a wide range of units on a non-award basis. Details for individual units may be found in the Macquarie University Handbook. In addition, the following restrictions and exclusions apply for all prospective non-award students.

ALL FACULTIES – BACHELOR OF PHILOSOPHY AND MASTER OF RESEARCH UNITS
Not available for non-award study.

FACULTY OF ARTS
Macquarie Law School
Availability of individual LAW/LAWS units is subject to approval by the Macquarie Law School. Non-award study in LAW units is not a guarantee of subsequent acceptance into a Macquarie Law degree.

Undergraduate
Non-Award students are not permitted to accumulate more than 27 credit points in LAW/LAWS units. To undertake further studies, students must gain admission to the Bachelor of Laws program.

Postgraduate
Non-Award students will be considered for Postgraduate units if they hold appropriate undergraduate or postgraduate qualifications for their intended unit(s).

MACQUARIE BUSINESS SCHOOL
Department of Accounting and Corporate Finance
ACCG units at 600, 800 and 900 level (postgraduate units) are only available to students who meet assumed knowledge requirements and enrolment is subject to departmental approval. ACCG903-913 are subject to department approval and students holding Associate Membership of CPA Australia

ACST Postgraduate units are available subject to departmental approval.

Department of Applied Finance
AFCP coded units are not offered for Non-Award enrolment.

Department of Actuarial Studies and Business Analytics
ECFS coded units are not offered for Non-Award enrolment.

Department of Economics
All applications for ECON units are subject to departmental approval.

Department of Management
Postgraduate Management units are not available for Non-Award study. Students interested in enrolling in Global MBA units on a non-award basis should apply through https://globalmba.mq.edu.au/home

Department of Marketing
Postgraduate units are not available for Non-Award enrolment.

FACULTY OF HUMAN SCIENCES
Department of Educational Studies
ECHE120 is only available to students who are interested in enrolling into the BTEaching (Early Childhood Education) or Bachelor of Education (Early Childhood Education) programs.

Department of Linguistics
Enrolment in linguistics unit requires permission of the unit convenor.
Department of Psychology
All non-award enrolment in psychology units (undergraduate and postgraduate) must be approved by the department. Suitably qualified applicants will be considered.

FACULTY OF SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING
Applicants must satisfy all pre-requisites for units in this Faculty

Department of Biological Sciences
100 – 300 units are available for non-award study. Postgraduate units are not available

Department of Chiropractic
HLTH and HLTH109 are the only units available for non-award studies

Department of Earth and Planetary Sciences
Non-Award applications considered from suitably qualified applicants

Department of Environmental Sciences
Non-Award applications considered from suitably qualified applicants

Department of Physics and Astronomy
Non-award students who can show that they have an adequate background for PHYS242 Big Ideas in Science, even if not gained by formal study, may have the usual pre-requisites waived by the Department.

All 800-level coursework units are available, subject to departmental approval.

Department of Molecular Sciences
100 – 300 units are available for non-award study. Postgraduate units are not available

Department of Computing
Non-Award applications considered from suitably qualified applicants

School of Engineering
Non-Award applications considered from suitably qualified applicants

Mathematics and Statistics
MATH188, 288 and 388 are not available for non-award study.
Enrolment in 800 level Statistics units are available subject to departmental approval.